STATES' VERNONT GALLERY OF ART.-This first class Photographic establishment, still continues on the "even tenor of its way," adding each year to its popularity and its business; the patronage hestowed upon it during the past year, exceeding very largely that of any former year. The extent of the Gallery—the elegance with shich it is furnished—the ease with which rooms located on the ground floor can be reached, to-gether with the very large number of fine pictures on exhibition, with something new almost every day, tends to make it one of the most agreeable places in the city at which to "drop a and look around," while the superiority of all the different kinds of work, is so evident all the different kinds of work, is so evident that when ence in, it is the most natural thing in the world to have some kind of picture taken Our citizens, and the people from the towns-around, cannot do better than to "call often."

The largely increased demand for fine colored Photographs at Styles' Vermont Gallery of Art, is sufficient evidence that the proprietor's efforts to introduce this style of picture, have been appreciated by the public.
